WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS FROM MEXICO INEVITABLE.
San Antonio, Texas, April 22.—Maj. Gen. Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the United States army, and Maj. Gen. Funston, in charge of operations along the frontier and in Mexico, personally discussed the problems last night which have grown out of the punitive expedition in pursuit of Villa.
General Scott arrived from Washington last night. General Scott pressed not to know whether the American troops were to be recalled without having captured Villa. He was sent here by the Secretary of War to discuss the situation in detail with General Funston and to make to the secretary a personal report. Whether radical development in the Mexican situation is made early next week will depend on how complete General Hugh L. Scott regards the information which General Funston is able to lay before him, and upon the time it will require Secretary Baker, after General Scott renders his report, to decide upon some new course of action. Officers here are convinced that General Scott will admit the futility of continuing the pursuit of Villa under the existing circumstances.

TOBACCO BEDS HURT IN BOURBON COUNTY.
(Bourbon News.)
Several Bourbon county tobacco growers have reported that the heavy frost of last Monday morning caused considerable loss to the tobacco beds, and many of them are completely ruined. These were where the plants were up, or just starting in the soil, as the ground was frozen more than an inch in depth.
Some of the tobacco growers will not sow their tobacco beds until the coming week, as many of those who had supposedly early plants, will be compelled to re-sow. As a result of this loss to the plants, some of the most prominent tobacco growers of Bourbon county contend that the setting of tobacco will be late and that the crop will, in the main, be one of the latest in many years.
These growers are of the opinion that the frost did no material damage to the fruit crop.

SENATOR CHAMBERLAIN LETS CAT OUT OF THE BAG.

When Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, goes out on the stump next fall to defend Democratic free trade policies, he is likely to be confronted with a statement made by him in the Senate on March 13 while discussing the army reorganization bill. Senator Chamberlain admitted that the American army costs more per man than any other army in the civilized world, and said:

"The American soldier, like the American laborer, demands to be better fed, better clothed and better taken care of. Place our army on the basis of some other army and you would not have a corporal's guard in the United States."

"Like the American laborer," is the expression that gives away the whole Democratic free trade argument. When it is admitted that the American laborer demands to be better fed, better clothed and better taken care of than the laborer of any other civilized country, it must also be admitted that the difference must be covered and guaranteed by a protective tariff or the foreign laborer will seize the American market, and, relatively speaking, there won't be a corporal's guard left in American mills. Senator Chamberlain talks like an advocate of protection of American labor but he voted for the Underwood tariff bill, which refused the demand of the American laborer to be "better fed, better clothed and better taken care of." Will Democratic newspapers in Oregon give their candid opinion of the merits of the demand of American soldiers and American laborers?

The President is for a tariff commission now, and is going to have a bill introduced in Congress to establish one. We had a tariff commission five years ago and the President's party killed it. The President's party also practically killed the tariff, both as a protective measure and as a revenue producer. Not a few Democrats are beginning to see that it was a mistake. The majority of the people knew it was a mistake all along. The majority of the people are protectionists. The reason why the Democratic party got into power was that the majority of the people divided their votes between the Republican party and its insurgent wing, known as the Progressive party. That was a serious blunder, and the majority of the people are aware of it. There will be opportunity to rectify the error at the election to be held next November.—Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.

REASON ENOUGH.

(Argonaut.)

Everything in the dear old village seemed the same to Jones after his absence of four years. The old church, the village pump, the ducks on the green, the old men smoking while their wives gossiped—it was so restful after the rush and bustle of the city. Suddenly he missed something. "Where's Hodge's windmill?" he asked in surprise. "I can only see one mill, and there used to be two."

The native gazed thoughtfully round, as if to verify the statement. Then he said slowly:

"They pulled one down. There weren't enough wind for two of 'em."

BRITISH CABINET CRISIS PASSED.

London, April 21.—The whole nation was surprised and the great majority of the people were cheered by the unexpected announcement after the cabinet meeting yesterday morning that the cabinet deadlock over the question of extending military conscription had been compromised. Thus the country is saved from the anxious days it would have suffered until parliament reassembled on Tuesday and from the newspaper controversy which would have raged meantime.

The Labor party, which was the only political group united against further measures of compulsion, is credited with paving the way to the agreement. The leader of the Labor party, Arthur Henderson, president of the board of education, proposed, according to the reports, a further trial of volunteer enlistment, with the promise that the Laborites would consent to a gradual extension of conscription if it proved necessary to secure the number of men which the military authorities consider essential.

The labor men, together with others, demanded that they be informed on the exact position—what number of men had been already enrolled and pledged; how many the war office required to enlarge the army and replace the wastage by casualties and other sources. Consequently a second session of both houses will be convened Tuesday, at which the government will supply full information.

A MERCILESS JUDGE

One Who Shows No Favor.

A merciless judge is Father Time. Before him the weak and wanting go to the wall. Only the truth can stand. For years the following statement from a Maysville resident has withstood this sternest of all tests.

Frederick Dresel, tailor, 1238 E. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was troubled with inflammation of the bladder and an annoyance from my kidneys. The passages of the kidney secretions were irregular and I had a severe pain across the small of my back which interfered with my duties. When a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at Wood & Son's Drug Store. They gave me prompt relief."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER Mr. Dresel said: "Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, I have not had any kidney trouble nor have I had to take a kidney medicine in that time."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Dresel has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

AGREE TO SHIP TONS OF DYES.

Washington, April 21.—The German government has agreed to permit exportation to the United States of 15,000 tons of dyestuffs, lack of which has seriously affected American textile manufacturers. Notification to this effect was contained in a note delivered yesterday by Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, to Secretary Lansing.

The communication explains that while Germany refused at first to permit exportation of dyestuffs unless they be exchanged for American goods, now excluded from Germany by the British blockade, after careful consideration of the situation it has been seen "that this blockade has resulted in serious embarrassment to those American industries which are in need of dyestuffs," and the Imperial German government now is prepared to make "a single exception," in permitting exportation in this instance. It is required only that the dyestuffs shall be consumed by American manufacturers and not re-exported to Great Britain or her allies.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
 FOR APRIL 23.
"THE GOSPEL FOR THE GENTILE."
 Acts 10:24-48.
 (By Rev. A. F. Stahl.)

In the notes published last week there was given an outline of the closing part of the tenth chapter of Acts. In discussing the lesson for tomorrow, we will follow that outline and one other division as follows:

Peter Received by Cornelius.
 It would seem perfectly natural for Cornelius to suppose that since an angel had called his attention to Peter as the one who had a divine message for him, he would conclude that he was a little above the ordinary man. Therefore, when Peter enters his home he falls down to worship him. This act, though coming from a commendable spirit, was evidence of the fact that Cornelius had a very imperfect idea of the deity. He was inclined to give to man, because he represented God, a place equal with God as a person to be worshipped. Peter refusing to accept worship, sets an example for men of all ages, both in the matter of worshipping other men or being worshipped by them.

Peter explains how through a vision he had come to be prepared to receive the messengers from Cornelius and how that his natural prejudice against the Gentiles was dispelled by God teaching him to call no man common or as a person with whom a Jew should not associate.

The Gospel Preached.
 From this record as well as from the others in the Acts of the Apostles, the one important thing is the preaching of the gospel. Peter was sent to this home for this purpose. The one thing Jesus stressed in the commission was that this gospel should be preached to every creature. Peter recognized this to be his task and began to tell about Christ, the Savior of the world. Our country is dotted with church buildings in which Christ is preached. No one need to go far from his home to get hear this wonderful message. Yet how few comparatively go to hear this gospel preached. A Bible containing this message of life and light is in nearly every home, but it is not searched for these truths by the great mass of humanity who are now lost and whose only hope of salvation is in this truth "that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God." The reason why the gospel is so slighted is not in the nature of the message, but in the character of the people to whom the gospel should be preached and by whom it should be accepted.

The Holy Spirit's Approval.
 To convince the Jews present, that God had accepted the Gentile, the Holy Spirit fell on those in this home who heard this sermon. It was not the ordinary gift of the spirit as promised to every believer who is baptized, but a special baptism of the spirit. This is evident from the fact that these Gentiles were able to speak with other tongues as were the apostles after their baptism on the day of Pentecost. If in the other cases of conversion, this same experience had been theirs, then it would seem that this manner of the gift of the spirit was essential to conversion. But as such was not the case it is well to see that this special spiritual baptism had a special purpose, which was for the benefit of the Jews present and not for those of Cornelius' household.

Commanded Them To Be Baptized.
 To know what things are necessary in the salvation of an individual is to take those things which are common to all cases of conversion recorded in the Bible. One of these was baptism in water. Peter so commands in this case, as he and others commanded in other cases. The special spiritual visitations may be the experience of some but no person should slight the expressed wishes of God by ignoring this command. Those who were added to the church in the Bible times did not overlook this command. Why should not the people of today be as obedient as the people of that day?

THE USEFUL TOAD.

Some thousands of families in this city will have backyard gardens this season; and in many of them a toad or two will make their homes and come out in the twilight to sit and blink in the path. You may think he is idling there, but if you watch him you will see him give a quick jump every little while. Whenever he does that he snaps down a mosquito or a beetle that is aiming to deposit a few hundred eggs on the under side of a vegetable leaf that will later hatch out into grubs enough to devour a whole garden if unmolested.

A toad is a valuable fellow in a garden; and the man is lucky who has one. He will devour more plant pests in one night than an average man could find and destroy in a day. So, if you have a toad, keep him.

DANIELS ANNOUNCES PROGRAM FOR SUMMER NAVAL MANEUVERS.

Washington, April 21.—Secretary Daniels announced last night the detailed schedule of summer operations for the Atlantic fleet. The program includes squadron exercises off Newport, tactical maneuvers in Narragansett Bay and war games in which the army will co-operate centering about New York and Boston.

From May 15 to 17 the fleet will be occupied in steaming trials and divisional exercises with brief respites at home stations. On June 9, a fortnight of squadron exercises will begin off Port of New York. The fleet will be divided for July 4 observances with shore leave for crews to designations to be selected later.

After assembling July 8, in Narragansett Bay, fleet tactical exercises will consume five days; followed by ship drills and inspections there until July 24. The destroyer flotilla and mining divisions then will join the main fleet in a war game involving problems for defense of eastern New York state and city. It will last until July 29 and will be one of the principal summer activities of the fleet.

From August 4 to 10 maneuvers will be held with the army off Boston. From August 20 to September 1, there will be more strategic maneuvers and the month of September will be devoted to target practice off Hampton Roads.

The submarine flotilla will hold target practice on the southern drill grounds about May 8, and will join in the exercises off New York with New London, Conn., as the base.

FRENCH NATIVES CHEER WHEN RUSSIAN TROOPS DEBARK AT MARSEILLES.

Marseilles, April 21.—Russian troops began debarking at this point at noon. The transports bearing Russian troops drew up to quay at 2:15 p. m. French troops, headed by the Sixth Hussars and Fifteenth Territorials, lined the landing to extend the arrivals a welcome. The sailors of the French fleet in the harbor manned the yard arms of their vessels and the bands of the fleet took up the Russian national anthem as the transport, La-touche Treville drew up.

The Russian officers and sailors were lined up along the decks and on the bridges of the transports and the Russian bands played the Marseillaise. As the debarkation began, cheers went up from the Russians on the transports.

General Lochweasy commanded the Russian forces. He was received with military honors by General Menasse, Governor of Marseilles and General Guerin, representing General Joffre.

A notable gathering of Russian and French officials joined in an exchange of salutation and the Russians and French soldiers cheered in salvas as the cannon roared an exchange of salutes.

The Russians were given a tremendous ovation as they marched from the quay to the Boulevard Maritime, where flags were flying and vast crowds had assembled. They presented a sturdy appearance as they swung along, waving their hands in answer to the enthusiastic cheering of the populace. The men were marched to a camp which had previously been prepared for their reception.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

At Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell. I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good."

I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it. Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlasting tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

SCOTT'S FORCE IN MEXICO.

(New York Evening World.)

When General Winfield Scott advanced on the city of Mexico in August, 1847, he left Puebla with 10,738 men, rank and file. He fought the battles of Contreras and Churubusco with 8,497 men; he took Molino del Rey and La Casa Mata with 3,251, stormed Chapultepec with 7,180 and occupied the city of Mexico with 6,000. The losses at Churubusco and Contreras were 137 killed, 877 wounded, 38 missing; at Molino del Rey 116 killed, 665 wounded and 18 missing. In the remaining conflicts 139 were killed, 703 wounded and 29 missing.

A new design of third rail, for which safety is the main claim, is the subject of a recent patent. The rail is so constructed that its various sections or units do not carry current until the train is just about to make use of them.

SIZE for Size, and Type for Type, Goodrich Tires are as large as the largest put out by any Maker, and WILL BE SO MAINTAINED.

This means larger than corresponding Sizes and Types of many other Tires for which even higher prices are asked.

It means, too, the most generously made FABRIC Tires on the Market, at any price. Manufactured by the largest Rubber Factory in America, with a 47 year Experience in Rubber-working, and a Record for DEPENDABILITY which makes the above statements worthy of prompt acceptance.

Made from the new "Barefoot Rubber," which gives its maximum Traction with minimum Friction,—with resilience, liveliness and long-life to Tires.

PRICED on that "Fair-List" basis initiated Jan. 1st, 1915, by the B. F. Goodrich Co., which saved more than $25,000,000 last year to Tire-Users, through its propaganda against Padded Price-Lists.

Priced so reasonably low that Competitors, whose products are not comparable, claim superiority on the mere strength of their Higher Prices (and the Larger Profits they demand from the Tire-User and Dealer).

Goodrich Prices are based on what it costs the largest, and longest experienced, Rubber Factory to manufacture Tires, as ONE of the 269 lines of Goodrich Rubber Goods for which it buys Crude Rubber, and over which its Overhead Expenses are divided.

Good Business Men should know, from this, why Goodrich "Barefoot" Tires can be (as they are) the best Tires on the Market AT ANY PRICE,—though quoted at the moderate "Fair-List" figures frankly and openly published herewith.

Miss Cora Blanche Turner, who for several years was a resident of Maysville, was united in marriage at noon Friday by Rev. A. F. Stahl at the Christian parsonage, to Dr. F. E. Theobald.

The bride, who is well known here as a trained nurse, has been connected with a sanatorium in Marion for the last year. Though of a quiet nature, she has made many friends here. The groom is in the employ of the United States government and is stationed at Indianapolis, Ind., where the happy young couple will go to make their home after a short stay in Cincinnati.

SPECIALISTS AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Miss Cynthia Pearl Maus of Cincinnati, a Bible school worker with a national reputation, and Roy K. Roadruck of Louisville, a state worker, will be with the Christian church and assist in the special services to be held there in the morning, and at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. Although the special Easter service will be held at the morning church hour, when the choir will give special numbers, it is expected that Miss Maus will give an appropriate message then. She requests all the 'teen-age pupils to be present at both Bible school and church services in the morning, and that they hear Mr. Roadruck in the evening. The conference in the afternoon for parents and teachers at 2:30 o'clock should be attended by representatives from the other churches. It will be well worth the effort to hear these persons in any of their services.
